17 Plaintiffs, DON NGUYEN, EVAN NGUYEN, and MATHEW NGUYEN, by and
 18 through their attorneys of record, LEVERTY & ASSOCIATES LAW CHTD., and Defendant
 19 PACIFIC LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, by and through its attorneys of record, Cozen
 20 O'Conner, hereby submit the following Amended Joint Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order.

21 A. INTRODUCTION

22 Plaintiffs brought this action against Defendant alleging breach of the insurance
 23 contract, breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing and breach of Nevada's Unfair
 24 Trade Practices.

25 B. EARLY CASE CONFERENCE DATE AND WHO ATTENDED

26 The Early Case Conference was held on Wednesday, April 13, 2022. The conference
 27 was attended by Patrick R. Leverty, Esq. for Plaintiffs and Karl Riley, Esq. and Laura M.
 28 Zulick, Esq. for Defendant.

1       C. SUBJECTS UPON WHICH DISCOVERY IS NEEDED

2              Discovery is required concerning all of Plaintiff's allegations, as well as Defendants'
3 affirmative defenses. This is expected to include written discovery, depositions of the parties,
4 depositions of percipient witnesses, depositions of employees, and retention, disclosure, and
5 depositions of expert witnesses. Neither party waives any objections to specific discovery by 6 submitting this proposed scheduling order.

7       D. ISSUES ABOUT DISCLOSURE OR DISCOVERY OF ELECTRONICALLY
8              STORED INFORMATION

9              None currently. The parties agreed that if electronically stored information is sought or 10 becomes an issue the parties will meet and confer to try to resolve all issues without the need
11 for Court intervention.

12       E. ISSUES ABOUT CLAIMS OF PRIVILEGE OR PRODUCTION OF 13              PROTECTED INFORMATION

14              Defendant contends that certain of their documents may contain confidential
15 information. Defendant may seek entry of a stipulated order concerning the confidentiality of 16 discovery material. If necessary, Defendant will draft a stipulated protective order for 17 Plaintiff's review, and parties will submit the proposed order to the Court for review and 18 approval.

19       F. STATEMENT OF REASONS WHY LONGER TIME PERIODS SHOULD
20              APPLY TO THIS CASE

21              At the joint case conference, the parties agreed good cause exists for the calculation of 22 deadlines to begin from the date of the Fed. R. Civ. Pro. Rule 26(f) conference. Defendant
23 Pacific Life filed an answer to the complaint on March 21, 2022. Given counsels' respective
24 schedules, an early case conference was not held until Wednesday, April 13, 2022. The parties
25 believe the calculation of deadlines from the date the defendant answered, as proscribed by LR
26(e)(1), is unworkable because the parties would lose 23 days of discovery. In addition,
27 Defendant Pacific Life identified four corporate representatives. Each of the four corporate 28 representatives reside out of state. In addition, one of the Plaintiffs, Don Nguyen, is an

1 interstate commercial truck driver, which makes scheduling his deposition more difficult than
2 the average witness. Finally, Pacific Life intends to depose the insured's medical providers,
3 whose demanding schedules can also present scheduling difficulties. Accordingly, the parties
4 request all deadlines at this time be calculated from the date of the Fed. R. Civ. Pro., Rule 26(f)
5 conference.

6 G. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

7 The parties have discussed alternative dispute resolutions and agree to continue to 8 discuss settlement and explore the possibilities of further alternative dispute resolution as this
9 case proceeds.

10 H. ALTERNATIVE FORMS OF CASE DISPOSITION

11 The parties have discussed the possibility of trial by the Magistrate Judge under 28
12 U.S.C. § 636(c) and Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 73 and agree that this case is properly suited before the 13 District Court.

14 I. ELECTRONIC EVIDENCE (LR 26-1(b)(9))

15 A jury trial has been demanded. (See ECF 4). The parties certify they discussed
16 presenting evidence in an electronic format to jurors. The parties agreed that it makes sense
17 during discovery to produce documents in PDF form, which is an electronic format that is
18 compatible with the court's electronic jury evidence display system. The parties further agreed
19 that prior to trial they will contact the assigned judge's courtroom administrator for instructions
20 about how to prepare evidence in an electronic format and other requirements for the court's 21 electronic jury evidence display system.

22 J. THE PARTIES' PROPOSED DISCOVERY PLAN

23 The parties propose the following timeline:

- 24 1. Initial Disclosures. The parties both made their initial Federal Rule of Civil 25 Procedure 26 disclosures by Friday, April 29, 2022. This date was within sixteen
26 (16) days from the date of the Fed. R. Civ. Pro., Rule 26(f) conference.

- 1       2. Discovery Cut-off Date. The discovery cut-off will be Monday, October 10, 2022. This date is one hundred eighty (180) days from the Fed. R. Civ. Pro., Rule 26(f) conference.
- 2       3. Amending the Pleadings and Adding Parties. Motions to amend the pleadings or add parties (Fed. R. Civ. Pro., Rules 13, 14, 19 and 20) shall be filed at least ninety (90) days before the discovery cut-off date on or before Tuesday, July 12, 2022.
- 3       4. FRCP 26(a)(2) Disclosures (Experts). The Plaintiffs propose that the parties follow the timelines set forth under Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 26.
  - 4       a. Initial Disclosures: Expert witness disclosures shall be made no later than sixty (60) days before the discovery cut-off date on or before Thursday, August 11, 2022.
  - 5       b. Rebuttal Disclosures: Disclosures respecting rebuttal experts (if any) shall be made no later than thirty-two (32) days after the initial disclosure of experts on or before Monday, September 12, 2022.
- 6       5. Dispositive Motions. Dispositive motions shall be filed no later than thirty (30) days after the discovery cut-off date on or before Wednesday, November 9, 2022.
- 7       6. Motions in Limine. Motions in Limine should be submitted thirty (30) days prior to trial, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
- 8       7. Pre-Trial Order. The joint pre-trial order shall be filed no later than thirty (30) days after the date set for filing dispositive motions on or before Friday, December 9, 2022. In the event dispositive motions are filed, the date for filing the joint pre-trial order shall be suspended until thirty (30) days after the decision on the dispositive motions or until further order of the Court.

26       ////

27       ////

28       ////

1       8. Extension of Scheduled Deadlines. All motions or stipulations to extend
2                  discovery shall be received by the Court within twenty-one (21) days before the 3                  discovery cut-off date on or before Monday, September 19, 2022.
